Who are the cowgirl chicks...

Trish lynn and the All American Cowgirl Chicks are a beautiful and daring cowgirl equestrian drill team based out of Weatherford, Texas. They are world renowned and respected all over the country for their patriotic service, horsemanship, leadership and professionalism in the sport of rodeo.

They are more than just cowgirls on fast horses, doing difficult tricks. Wearing the patriotic colors of red, white and blue, the Cowgirl Chicks exemplify the true meaning of their western heritage as they entertain crowds while riding for a cure for cancer.

The Cowgirl Chicks carry the American and Texas flags as they perform an aggressive 10-minute routine to upbeat music.

They are one of the most sought after entertainment groups in the rodeo industry. They inspire others to be dedicated, committed and to train hard to be the best in whatever they pursue.

They are a proud team, and their team has a story, a style, and a vision all its own. Trish lynn and the Cowgirl Chicks® know what it is like to start from the ground up, get dirty, get knocked down, and take a dream, that no one believed in, and be successful. Their horses all have a similar story; they were turned away, abused, or abandoned. With time and dedication the girls have turned these “problem horses” into champions. Performing with passion and guts, they became one with their horses.

What's their mission...

The Cowgirl Chicks believe that destiny is not by chance, but by choice. With their castaway horses and their undying commitment to their sport, the Cowgirl Chick's motto is “Never Quit”, an attitude which has made them the heart and soul of today's rodeo.

The mission of The All American Cowgirl Chicks is to improve the quality of life for children and families served by charitable programs in North Texas. The All American Cowgirl Chicks will accomplish its mission by inspiring and mentoring people of all ages at professional rodeos where we can expose the community to our western heritage and donate the monies raised to charity.

Their Creed:

- ⌋ Work on your weaknesses until they become stronger
- ⌋ Ignore those who discourage you
- ⌋ Dedicate yourself
- ⌋ Work to improve your moral and physical strengths
- ⌋ How you conduct yourself in the arena is just as important as how you conduct yourself out of the arena
- ⌋ Talent is God given- be humble, fame is man given- be thankful, conceit is self given- be careful
- ⌋ A champion is one who lays down his own desires for the benefit of others
- ⌋ 90% of success is in the head and heart
- ⌋ Always believe in yourself and always give your best

Their Performances...

In order to keep this team of athletes on the road they, offer clinics and training sessions for horses and students at their ranch in Weatherford, Texas throughout the year.

The team pulls their horse trailers over 85,000 miles a year for 85 scheduled performances. They dedicate each performance to cancer patients and also honor those who have served, and now serve, in the military. Battling cancer has become more personal to the Cowgirl Chicks. In 2010 one of the leading members was diagnosed with a rare form of breast cancer leaving the Cowgirl Chicks more determined to help educate and fight this deadly disease.

Equestfest and The Rose Parade...

The team was invited in 2006 by Patrick Gottsch to perform at the Equestfest and ride in the Rose Bowl parade. See them perform LIVE from Equestfest on RFD-TV on December 29th at 3:00 ET.
